DECIDING CONTESTS.

Work of the Republican National Committee.

TWO STATES DISPOSED OF.

McKinley Delegates Seated in Nearly Every Case—Colored Delegates Will Be Properly Cared For While in St. Louis. The Convention Hall Dedicated—Convention Gossip.

St. Louis, June 11.—The meeting of the national Republican committee to decide for seats in the national convention absorbed the general interest in affairs pertaining to the convention yesterday. There were no important arrivals except committee members and they were so concerned with the proceedings of the committee that they declined generally to give attention to other questions. The proceedings were of a harmonious character, and while there was evidence that there was genuine feeling in behalf of the various candidates this feeling did not at any time take on personally aggressive form.

The entire day's session was given up to the Alabama contests, which involved the seats of the four delegates at large and all of the nine districts except the Second, making 23 seats that were in dispute. The contests were all decided except those from the Third and Fifth districts, in which hearings were postponed on account of the absence of either contestants or contestees. The points at issue in the Sixth and Eighth districts were settled outside the committee and the contest in both instances withdrawn. The issue was presented to the committee in all other cases.

Of the 18 delegates whose cases were decided either by vote of the committee or by withdrawal 16 are for McKinley and two for Reed for president. There was no division upon any of the contests, except that made in the case of the delegates at large, and this was overwhelmingly in favor of the Vaughn, or McKinley delegates, and against the Moseley or anti-McKinley men.

The evening session was presided over by Vice Chairman M. H. Do-Young. The Georgia contest on the delegates at large was taken up and R. R. Wright, a colored man, and one of the contestants was heard in favor of seating the contestants, who are himself and J. E. Hetherington in place of J. U. Doveaux, H. A. Rucker.

The names of A. E. Buck and H. L. Johnson were presented by both delegations and they were not contested. Mr. Wright claimed that 276 of the 350 delegates to the state convention were present at the convention by which he and Hetherington were chosen.

W. H. Smyth appeared for the contestees and contended that the convention by which Doveaux and Rucker were chosen was the regular one, and that the other was merely a mass meeting.

On motion of Mr. Sutherland of New York the Doveaux-Rucker delegation was seated without a word of debate. Both Doveaux and Rucker are McKinley men, though not instructed.

There were three district contests from Georgia, which were the First, Ninth and Eleventh. In the First district S. B. Morse and M. J. Doile claimed to be the regular delegates and they were contested by S. O. Cherry and R. W. White. Both contestants and contestees are friendly to McKinley. Morse and Doile were seated.

The Ninth district contest was passed and that from the Eleventh taken up. In the Eleventh W. H. Matthews and D. M. Outlaw, both colored and both instructed for Reed, contested the seats awarded by the district convention to S. M. Scarlett and William Jones, both colored and both instructed for McKinley. Jones and Scarlett were seated.

The totals of the day's work was 24 delegates disposed, 18 in Alabama and six in Georgia. Of the 24 delegates seated all but two favor McKinley.

While the committee was in session Messrs. Kennard, chairman of the local committee on arrangements for the convention, and Major Kninwater, chairman of the hotel committee, were granted a hearing to make a statement concerning the report that colored delegates would not be given accommodations at the St. Louis hotels. They stated that the leading hotels had agreed to take care of delegates regardless of color and that St. Louis was prepared to make good all her auto-convention promises. They said that the statement to the effect that the color line was to be drawn to the extent of crowding the colored delegates out of the hotels which had been sent to the country were without authority and asked that the committee take steps to correct the misapprehension which had been created.

The convention hall was dedicated last night by impressive services and in the presence of a large number of people, who will see the inside of the building for the only time during the convention. Senator Carter and other members of the national committee and some of the most prominent people of the city occupied seats on the stage. The services consisted of vocal and instrumental music and speeches made by Governor W. K. Stone, Hon. M. Kennard, chairman of the local committee; Mayor C. P. Walbridge and Governor E. O. Stanard.

The advocates of the free and unlimited coinage of silver will hold a meeting to compare views and discuss the proper line of proceeding when the convention meets. The meeting will be informal and it is expected that it will be attended by the delegates and national committeemen present from the states of California, Colorado, Utah, Montana, Nevada, Idaho, North Dakota, South Dakota, Washington and Oregon. It is the desire of the movers of the meeting, of which Colonel Isaac Trumbo of Utah is the head, to try to get united action in behalf of the free coinage of silver and of a positive declaration for the protection of wool and lead ore, all these states being interested in one or the other of these industries. Colonel Trumbo says they will demand a specific declaration for a duty of 8 or 10 cents a pound on wool and for the coinage of all the silver offered at the ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the co-operation of other nations. There has been some effort to secure the co-operation of the southern delegates in this movement, but it has not so far been successful.

AGRICULTURAL REPORT.

Condition of Winter and Spring Wheat and Other Growing Cereals.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Agricultural department crop report gives out the following information on the condition of growing crops:

Acres of wheat. Percentages of areas harvested last year have been obtained from a greatly enlarged list of correspondents, inquiries being addressed in particular to 15,000 of the principal millers throughout the country, to whose careful comparison of present acreage with that of previous years many corrections of the preliminary estimate of December last are due.

There has been some diminution of winter wheat area owing to the total failure of the crop in some sections, the ground being plowed up for spring wheat or oats. These returns reduced to acres gives for the principal winter states: California, 8,011,000; Kansas, 2,684,000; Ohio, 2,422,000; Indiana, 2,294,000; Illinois, 1,906,000; Missouri, 1,418,000; Pennsylvania, 1,289,000; Michigan, 1,202,000. Total winter area, 22,794,000.

Spring wheat states: Minnesota, 8,200,000; North Dakota, 2,530,000; South Dakota, 2,468,000; Nebraska, 1,224,000. Total spring area, 11,825,000. From Minnesota the department agent reports much larger area than in 1895, partly owing to the plowing up of fields of winter wheat and rye, but principally to the fact that farmers increased spring wheat area at the expense of other crops, considering it a better investment than oats, rye or corn.

Since the May report the conditions of winter wheat has fallen 4.8 points, that of June being 77.9 against 82.7 on May 1. The percentages of the principal states are: Pennsylvania, 70; Kentucky, 65; Ohio, 50; Michigan, 73; Indiana, 70; Illinois, 87; Missouri, 80; Kansas, 85; California, 98.

The condition of spring wheat indicates a prosperous yield that closely approximates a full or normal crop, the average for the country being 99.9 per cent. The average for the year 1895 was 97.8. The averages for the principal spring wheat states are as follows: Minnesota, 92; Wisconsin, 110; Iowa, 103; Nebraska, 103; South Dakota, 111; North Dakota, 105; Washington, 88; Oregon, 95.

The percentage of the combined winter and spring wheat acreage is 101, and the condition of all wheat is 87.6.

The preliminary report places the acreage of oats at 98.9 per cent of last year's area and the general condition at 98.8, against 84.5, same date 1895.

The acreage of rye is 96.9 of last year's, the condition of same being 85.2, against 85.7 last year.

The acreage of barley is 89.9 per cent of the area of 1895, and its condition stands at 98 per cent.

From Europe a prevailing lack of rain is reported, with injury to crops generally in Spain, Italy and Great Britain. Hay and pasture injury in France but wheat especially is abundant.

Prospects average in Austria, Hungary, Roumania and Bulgaria; exceptionally good in Germany and Russia.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DROWNING.

Two Small Mosquito Boats Captured in the Inlet at Atlantic City.

New York, June 11.—Struck by a sudden squall of wind two small mosquito boats capsized in the inlet at Atlantic City yesterday afternoon and the occupants narrowly escaped death by drowning. The boats contained a pleasure party composed of Lawyer S. Cameron Hinkle, Miss Rotta Jordan, daughter of A. M. Jordan, superintendent of the Atlantic Sewerage company; William H. Bartlett, president of the Bartlett Ice company; Mrs. E. A. Maguire and Miss Margaret Van Waggoner, a society belle of Paterson.

The little boats were overturned in an instant and the occupants thrown into the water, which was running to sea with the speed of a mill race. The three women were carried far away from the boats, but the men quickly struck out to the rescue. Lawyer Hinkle reached Miss Jordan just as she was sinking, while Bartlett secured a hold upon Mrs. Maguire and Miss Van Waggoner. Then began a battle for life and they were fast becoming exhausted when one of the overturned boats drifted within reach. All five managed to secure a hold on it and were rescued after a hard struggle.

The same squall upset several other fishing parties, but no serious injury was inflicted.

Many Arrests in Barcelona.

BARCELONA, June 11.—The authorities are detaining in custody 40 persons who have been arrested in connection with the explosion of a bomb on Sunday last. The Correspondencia asserts that the bomb was thrown by an anarchist named Olliver, who committed the outrage in obedience to orders from the anarchist propaganda.

TRYING TO SAVE HIM

More Witnesses Examined in the Walling Trial.

ALL WERE FOR THE DEFENSE.

Some of Them Badly Mixed Up by the Rigid Cross-Questions—The Character of Others Impugned—Walling's Leading Lawyer Not Able to Finish the Case, Being Seriously Ill.

CINCINNATI, June 11.—Colonel George Washington, Walling's leading counsel, is ill, too ill to be in attendance at the trial of his client. He is suffering from nervous prostration superinduced by overwork. Mr. Shepherd, Walling's counsel from Hamilton, O., is conducting the defense, assisted by L. J. Crawford, who so ably defended Scott Jackson in the face of such extreme difficulties.

John Locke, the farmer, upon whose premises the headless body of Pearl Bryan was discovered, was the first witness. He described the finding of the body, the topography of the locality, the density of the privet bushes, and with the aid of photograph showed each juror separately and individually where George Jackson says the unconscious woman was carried over the fence and through Farmer Stone's premises to the place where the body was discovered.

Dr. James Rothenbush, a dentist, from Hamilton, O., testified to Walling's good reputation. He said that Walling was at his office performing operative dentistry on Monday afternoon, Feb. 3. Under cross-examination he said that he had written but one letter to Walling. Colonel Nelson produced five letters, all of which he acknowledged writing, and amended his first statement by stating he had reference to the time following Walling's arrest.

Attorney Shepherd objected to the introduction of the letters, and in argument to have the objection overruled Colonel Nelson said he desired to impeach the character of the witness, as well as the defendant, by the letters, and could show by the correspondence that the witness had a low idea of morality and of life. Judge Helm ruled the letters out.

The witness was asked if he knew May Smith, but the court ruled the question improper. The other questions of the prosecution all ruled improper indicated that May Smith corresponded with the witness and defendant. May Smith was Walling's sweetheart.

Dr. Caldwell, Philip Rothenbush of Hamilton, O., Dr. Sparks, John Snailley and O. S. Dabois of Greenfield, Ind., testified to the good reputation enjoyed by Walling at the places where they reside.

Benjamin McGraw, a conductor on the Queen and Crescent railroad, testified that his attention was called to a young man and woman at the Grand Central depot by Watchman Patrick Kinney, and that the young man was not Alonzo Walling. Watchman Kinney positively identified Walling as the man, and said that the young woman in whose company he was resembled Pearl Bryan's photograph.

Charles Biltz, who made a test run from Fort Thomas to Newport over the route Coachman Jackson followed, testified that he did not run over the route, but walked. He encountered three creeks, 14 fences, one or two stone walls and a public road.

Henry Kusch testified that he drove the gray horse and rockaway over the route said to have been taken by Jackson. He had three passengers. The horse stalled on the three-mile hill. The trip from George and Ehn to the scene of the murder took two hours, lacking two and one-half minutes. The horse was driven as fast as possible.

Harry C. Martin, a liverymon of 941 McMillan street, Walnut Hills, said: "At 4 o'clock on Friday afternoon, Jan. 31, a stranger got off a Walnut Hills cablecar and came to my stable to inquire about prices. When I told him what they were, he asked if that was the best I could do. I said it was, and he left the stable very abruptly, going across to Chester Mullen's. He was not Alonzo Walling."

Hubbard Schwartz, a newspaper reporter, said he interviewed John Foster of Bellevue before the trials and Foster gave a ridiculous description of Walling.

Schwartz timed Alf Courts over a part of the course when he ran from Fort Thomas to Major Widdfield's house in Mount Auburn. It took Courts 43 minutes to run from the hill just back of Newport to the Widdfield residence.

Courts then took the stand, stating that he is the champion long-distance runner of the south. The trip from Fort Thomas to Mount Auburn took two hours.

Upon cross-examination Colonel Nelson asked Courts: "Do you know how 'Possum' Berry lost his life?"

The defense objected in vain, and Courts answered that Berry was shot dead while supposed to be stealing chickens.

"Who was with him?" demanded Nelson.

"I was." The deposition of E. L. Hackelman, dental student at the Ohio dental college, stated that Hackelman and Walling were together in the college dissecting room the same Friday evening of the murder. Later Hackelman met Walling on the street and they walked about until 9 o'clock that night.

Fred Albion's deposition was read. On the Thursday night before the murder Fred Albion said he was with Walling from 9 o'clock until 1 o'clock. They went from Lawrence's barber shop to the McNevin house, Walling buying a sack of apples on the way. Walling went to the dining room, Albion upstairs. In a few minutes they went to the Atlantic Garden. Walling slept at Heider's. On the night of the murder Albion says he and Walling were at the McNevin house.

Court adjourned at 4:55 on Shepherd's motion. He says he will finish today.

SPAIN DENIES IT.

No Prospect of the Madrid Government Granting Home Rule to Cuba.

MADRID, June 11.—In official circles here the report is denied that Spain has received a note from the United States, suggesting friendly intervention in Cuba. It is also alleged that the Havana correspondent of the London Times was misled when he cabled to his paper that there was much talk in official circles of arranging the question of conceding home rule, and that the Cubans would accept if the United States guaranteed Spain's compliance. It is stated that Cubans insist upon complete independence, and that home rule would not content them.

A dispatch received here from Havana says that the administration there is in serious financial trouble. The pay of the Spanish troops is reported to be three months in arrears and, consequently, the soldiers are believed to be discontented.

Another dispatch from Cuba says that the insurgents recently exploded a dynamite mine, wounding eight Spaniards.

Gen. Lee Dines With Gen. Weyler.

HAVANA, June 11.—United States Consul General Lee dined yesterday with Captain General Weyler, sitting at his host's right hand, while Mr. Williams, the retiring consul general of the United States, sat at his left. General Weyler's other guests were Spanish officers. There was a courteous exchange of hopes for the conclusion of peace. Captain General Weyler expressed a desire to visit the United States and Consul General Lee offered to accompany him should he desire to do so.

DEAD WITHOUT A DOUBT.

Three Rapists Disposed of by a Mob Down in Texas.

BRYAN, Tex., June 11.—A mob of 300 men came to town late last night and took out of jail Louis Whitehead and George L. Johnson, who attempted to rape Dr. R. H. Wilson's daughter last Saturday. They also took out Jim Reddick, who had been sentenced to hang for raping an Italian woman, but whose case had been reversed by the court of appeals.

They took the victims three miles from town, where a big fire had been built, and another section of the mob awaited them. The woods were picketed and an Associated Press reporter was not allowed to go to the scene. Men could be seen piling fagots on the fire. It is not known whether they were burned, but a man in from the scene at midnight says all three men were hanged to one tree, Whitehead confessing and the others professing innocence.

FATAL FLAMES.

Three Lives Were Lost and Two Frame Buildings Destroyed.

WHITING, Ind., June 11.—Fire broke out yesterday in what is known as the Oklahoma district of this city, and in spite of the efforts of the town fire company and assistance from the Standard Oil company works, three lives were lost and two frame structures consumed.

The dead are:

Mrs. John Homer, aged 32 years, burned to a crisp.

Her son, aged 2 years, flesh burned from his body.

Her daughter, aged 4 years, burned beyond recognition.

The saloon of John Polinski and an adjoining dwelling were destroyed.

DEATH FROM FRIGHT.

A Woman Never Recovers From Being Dreadfully Frightened.

GREENSBURG, Ind., June 11.—Mrs. Jacob Pickett is dead, the result of a recent fright. Mr. and Mrs. Pickett moved, recently, into an old cottage south of this city, which had been vacated for some time, and was a rendezvous for tramps and fishing parties. On the first night some fishermen, not knowing the hut was occupied, tried to get in.

The woman, having heard that the house was haunted, went into hysterics, from which she never recovered. Her reason began failing, and as a result of an inquest she was adjudged a victim of acute mania. She grew suddenly worse and next day she died.

Insanity From Fright.

St. Louis, June 11.—John R. Best, a wealthy lumber dealer, committed suicide yesterday at his residence by cutting his throat with a razor. His act was due to temporary aberration of mind produced by fright at the violence of the recent cyclone. Mr. Best was manager for the Big Four Lumber company of Arkansas.

Lying Unconscious in St. Louis.

St. Louis, June 11.—At the city hospital Samuel Dodsworth, supposed to be the mayor of Leavenworth, Kan., is lying unconscious and will die. Tuesday he registered at the Terminal hotel and yesterday morning, when he did not respond to a summons, his door was broken in. Dodsworth was found unconscious, with nothing to indicate the cause.

DIFFERENCE SETTLED

Both Houses of Congress Will Adjourn Today.

APPROPRIATION BILLS PASSED.

A Large Batch of Other Measures Rushed Through During the Closing Hours—An Echo of the Chicago Strike and Eugene Debs' Imprisonment—Powers of a Judge Curtailed.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Congress yesterday settled its differences and by a joint resolution fixed upon 4 o'clock this afternoon for the end of the session. The agreement came late in the day, just as the prospects for adjournment were beginning to look dark, with both houses threatening to hold out all summer before either would yield a point to the other, with a bare quorum responding to the rollcalls and with a final flare of partisan political recriminations.

The victory, if there is one, rests with the senate, for its dozen amendments to the sundry civil bill making appropriations for public buildings in western cities were accepted gracefully by the house while house leaders still insisted upon the prerogative of their body to original appropriations. Both factions to the contest over government aid to church institutions claimed to have prevailed in the compromise of the District of Columbia bill which continued for one more year the disbursements to church charitable institutions coupling the extension with a declaration that the government treasury is to expend no more money in this field.

A number of bills were passed during the day in the senate, including the important bill giving trial by jury and other safeguards in prosecution for contempt of court. The measure has been vigorously urged by labor interests, particularly railroad employees. It is the result of the agitation resulting from the imprisonment of Eugene V. Debs for contempt of an injunction issued at the time of the Chicago strike. The bill as passed continues the power of summary punishment when an offense is committed in the immediate presence of a judge. But in indirect contempts, such as violation of an injunction, the bill provides that the accused shall be given a full hearing, with opportunities to summon witnesses and offer a defense. An amendment was made by Mr. Cannon of Utah, giving the accused the right of trial by jury upon application. In case of conviction, an appeal is provided to the supreme court. Senators Hill, Butler and Peffer supported the bill, and Mr. Platt opposed it as revolutionizing the judicial system.

The bill increasing the pay of letter carriers was passed. It provides that after June 30 the pay of letter carriers in cities of more than 75,000 population for the first year of service shall be $600; second year, $800; third year, $1,000, and thereafter, $1,200; and after June 30, 1896, the pay of letter carriers in cities of a population of under 75,000 for the first year of service shall be $600; second year, $800; third year and thereafter, $1,000.

The bill recently vetoed, increasing the pension of Francis E. Hoover, was then placed on its passage over the veto, resulting, yeas 36, nays 9, more than the necessary two-thirds majority.

Other bills were passed as follows: To prevent the shipment of liquor under false labels; authorizing a bridge over the St. Louis river near Duluth, Minn.; authorizing a railroad bridge over the Potomac river at or near Great Falls; authorizing the appointment of a naval board to visit Navassa and Swan Islands, West Indies, with a view to securing a site for a naval coaling station.

HOUSE KEPT BUSY.

Bills and Joint Resolutions Passed Through During the Closing Hours.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—An enormous amount of business was transacted by the house yesterday in order to clear the desks for the final adjournment. The absence of Ken permitted members to pass bills in the closing hours in which they were vitally interested. There was a great clamor for recognition. Fifty-three bills and joint resolutions were passed, the most important of which probably was the bill appropriating $200,000 for the trans-Mississippi exposition at Omaha.

Mr. Allen of Mississippi, the wit of the house, enlivened the day with a humorous speech.

Chairman Cannon of the appropriations committee made a gallant fight to induce the house to stand out against the senate public building items in the sundry civil bill, but the members outvoted him, 100 to 88.

After the conference report on the District of Columbia bill, containing its compromise on sectarian charities had been presented, Mr. Cannon precipitated a heated discussion of the political situation in which Mr. Dockory (Dem., Mo.) and Mr. Dingley (Rep., Me.) participated. The work of the session was elaborately reviewed, criticised and defended.

The conference report on the District of Columbia bill was adopted.

The senate resolution for final adjournment at 4 p. m. today, was passed. The house held a brief session at 9:30 to enable the speaker to sign the enrolled bills.

Eight Wild Shots.

DEWOOD, Ind., June 11.—Last night two unknown men knocked A. R. Lupton down with a coupling pin and fired eight shots at him, riddling his clothes, but causing no serious injury.

The Wheeling Intelligencer says: "Kentucky Democrats in convention a-ssembled hissed the name of Cleveland and Carlisle! And because they stand up bold and strong for sound money! The day will come when the Democrats of Kentucky will be ashamed of this. They have eaten of the insane root, but they will recover, and then they will be glad to blot out the story of their hissing."

KENTUCKY Republicans have for years been denouncing Colonel John Whallen, the Democratic boss of Louisville, but Whallen is one of the first Democrats in the State to receive any honors from Governor Bradley. The Governor has appointed him a member of the Chickamauga Park Commission. But in appointing Whallen, Bradley has brought down the wrath of the A. P. A.'s on his head, as the Colonel is a Catholic.

"WHO IS BENEFITED?"

Rev. E. B. Cake Replies to Some Statements in the Ledger on the Financial Question.

Editor Bulletin: In Tuesday's issue of the Ledger Mr. Davis utters himself in his usual laconic style on the financial situation. I am moved to rectify a few scraps of financial history as a votive offering to his Moloch, the god of "a single gold standard"—sometimes, and in some localities, known by the euphonious title of "Major McKuleysm" or a converse "W. O. Bradleyism."

He asks, "Who is to be benefited by that measure in case the people are foolish enough to adopt it?" Answer, the masses from whom in the decade beginning with 1867 and ending with 1877, the red-handed money power, the real anarchists of our country, stole over one billion of the people's money, forging out of it bond-shackles to enslave the masses.

On the 12th day of April, 1866, a Republican Congress passed a law authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to sell 5-20 bonds and with the proceeds retire United States currency, including greenbacks,—note here the "proceeds" were greenbacks.

On December 11th, 1866, E. G. Spalding, a Buffalo (N. Y.) banker, a member of Congress, wrote Secretary McCulloch: "You, no doubt, now, to a certain extent, have control of the currency of the country, and I think that you will, of necessity, contract moderately, so as to preserve a tolerable easy money market. There may be occasional spasms or tightness for money, but, generally, I shall look for plenty of money for at least a year to come."

It was within this financial cyclonic storm period, reaching its climax of infamy, the acme of daring robbery, that silver was demonetized in 1873. In 1866 the country possessed $1,200,000,000 of currency. In 1877 with the currency circulation cut down to $600,000,000, with ten thousand business failures; three million men out of employment; bankruptcies multiplying; the culmination of the tramp nuisance; strikes, riots and general consternation; wages reduced to starvation prices; with Jno. Sherman at the head of the financial-credentury wanting to burn the remaining $300,000,000 of the people's money. It was contraction of the currency, but an infinite expansion of the woes and the enslavement of the masses, the end whereof is not yet, unless the people rise in their might, of which there is great promise and bury beneath a veritable avalanche of ballots the un-American and treasonable dogma of a single gold standard.

He further asks: "If free silver is good for the country, why not free paper money?" This is a "too's question," and I will turn fool long enough to answer it. Prior to 1873, we had free silver money and free paper money, both of which were money, the equivalent of gold with two exceptions, (after the passages of the exceptional clause in 1873) in payment of interest on the national debt and duties of imports.

In 1867, when the national emergency was opened for burning the greenbacks, the real paper money, the ashes of which went into bonds, the badge of the people's enslavement to the moneyed shysters. In 1873 silver, which prior to that date was money, was reduced to a thing with only a commercial value.

He further asks: "Who have the impudence to ask the government to stamp 'one dollar' on every 50 cents worth of silver bullion they choose to bring to the mint?" Talk about impudence, neighbor, who made that "impudence" possible? The legislation that demonetized silver, and authorized stamping a lie on so many grains of silver.

Be careful, neighbor; don't point the finger of scorn, tipped with the poison of ridicule in the teeth of the masses who are being driven to starvation by a series of the most criminal financial legislation ever known. Its parallel is found only in old England, where the conditions are that of landlord and tenant, autocrat and serf, master and slave.

No advocate of the free coinage of silver is so crazed as to think it is the cure-all for our ills. It is not that, but it is a step in righting a series of villainies. It is the cry of arousing patriotism. It will be the blow administered by a free ballot to the octopus of greed that cries, I will have my pound of flesh nearest the merchant's heart.

I have not yet lost faith in the patriotism of my countrymen, when the hour comes to condemn the political benedict Arnolds, who would betray the masses for a personal gain.

The clearest evidence that there is a foe in the field worthy of the gold-barons' steel, will be shown in this, the St. Louis convention will not dare make a square issue with free coinage of silver, by declaring for a single gold standard. If it does defeat is certain when the ballots are counted in November.

KENTUCKY CROPS.

What the Weather Bureau Says of the Outlook in Its Weekly Report.

[For the Week Ending June 8th.]

In order to give in detail a thorough review of weather conditions and their effects upon crops during the past week, it would be necessary to localize reports, since some correspondents in different sections complain of damages to crops from excessive rains, while others in adjacent or contiguous counties say the weather was all that could be desired. The most general complaint of excessive rainfall comes from the western counties, although the eastern and southern sections are well checked with districts of limited area in which some destruction has been wrought, either by too frequent showers or by heavy local rains. Farm work has been retarded even on the uplands, and where the crops are not totally ruined by washouts in the low land, grass and weeds have sprung up, which can only be cleaned out by weeks of warm and dry weather.

The week opened with the temperature slightly below the normal. Rain fell at some places on four successive days, and clouds prevailed generally over the State. The average rainfall in western counties was about 1.00 inch; in the central, about .75, and in the eastern, 1.10. During the latter part of the week the temperature rose above the normal, and the weather was generally clear.

Western Kentucky.—This was the third week during which farm work had to be suspended for days at a time on account of continuous rains in this section of the State. In many localities the effects of too much rain have been disastrous to crops. Cornfields have become weedy and grassy to such an extent that some farmers say it will be impossible to clean them. Tobacco fields are in a similar condition. Considerable tobacco has been drowned in the low lands where the plants will have to be re-set. Some corn, too in these localities will have to be replanted. Wheat, which is being harvested, has improved somewhat in localities where it was not subjected to the injurious influences of washouts. The grain is good, although the general condition of the crop is poor. Most fields are cut, except in counties where threshing could not be presented on account of heavy rains. Oats have improved and the crop is in generally good condition. Pastures and meadows also show a marked improvement. Gardens have suffered from excessive moisture. Fruits are all well, except apples, which are falling from the trees.

Central Kentucky.—Damage to crops in this section is not so general, the amounts of rainfall reported that were in excess of the normal being confined to very limited areas. Enough rain, however, has fallen to satisfy the farmers' wishes for a period of a week or more. Corn and tobacco suffered mostly from the moisture in this section, although generally speaking both crops are in fair to good condition. Tobacco plants are all set, and making fine growth. Here, too, weeds and grass are growing in the corn fields which farmers have been unable to plow. Wheat is about ready to be cut, but its condition is far from encouraging. In some localities it is affected with smut. Hay is not up to expectations. It is too wet to cut clover hay which is ripening and looks well. Hemp is growing nicely. Oats and grasses have improved. Gardens are good as a rule. Early corn will ripen during the next week or ten days if sunshine will prevail. Apples are falling from the trees, but with this exception fruits are in good condition.

Eastern Kentucky.—This section has derived the greatest benefit from the weather of the past week, except in a few counties in the northern part of the State, the rainfall was just equal to the requirements of the crops. Only a few districts have to complain of weeds and grass taking possession of the corn fields. Generally speaking corn and tobacco are in excellent condition. Cut worms have been operating in this section, but their ravages have not been extensive. Wheat is in generally poor condition. It is beginning to ripen while the heads are yet very low. Oats, pastures and meadows show a marked improvement. Even upon the uplands grasses have improved beyond what seemed possible a few weeks ago. Gardens look well. Fruits, except apples, are plentiful and fine.

FRANK BURKE,
Section Director, Louisville.

THE MISSES YOUNG'S SCHOOL.

Interesting and Entertaining Were the Commencement Exercises. Successful Close of Session.

The observing citizen of Maysville has good reason to know that within her venerated borders are many individual successes, in various departments, so quietly achieved—and so worthily, withal—as to arrest attention mainly by the announcement of some sudden, but merited crowning. This comes, the logical result of God-given fitness, earnest endeavor and the skillful subordination of all environment to a fixed purpose,—is the assured climax of qualification and well-directed effort, in all lines, and everywhere.

In no vocation is this more conspicuously true than in that of teaching; by none have the requirements been more fully, bravely and gracefully met, than by the worthy ladies whose efforts we recognize and gladly seek to commemorate. In pleasing evidence of all which, were the closing exercises on Tuesday evening, at the handsomely decorated rooms of the Misses Young; in evidence, because of happy design, accurate alignment and perfect execution.

Beginning with the violin solo by Prof. Bailey, artistic and inspiring, the interest was sincere and unbroken to the end of the happy occasion. The especially pleasing features were—

The doll song and minuet, by the little girls; only little tots, many of them, but just like dear, bright little tots;

The recitations, all admirable, in which Mary Alice Neal shone brightly;

Bessie Wells' composition, "June," a rippling echo of spring time, pretty in diction and delivery;

The Ribbon Drill by the school—inclusive of the manly boys—scenic, sylph like, but precise, and an admirable display of physical culture;

An essay by Miss Alice Wells, "The Aim is Not Knowledge, but Power," bristling with good points and worthy an older head;

The presentation of medals to the graduates, Misses Helena Nolin and Allie Wells;

An address, in verse, by Miss Helena Nolin, delivered by Miss Jessie Yancey, in inimitable style;

An essay by Miss Jessie Yancey, "A Retrospect and a Forecast," touching, wise, a credit to both head and heart of the charming lady;

An exceptionally bright essay, and beyond criticism, was that of Miss Helena Nolin, "Into the Light. In it was manifested genius, feeling and methodical training, beyond question. The audience, though fully appreciative, was all too small for ample justice to the fair author.

Add to all the foregoing the pleasing piano accompaniment of Miss Margaret Nolin, and we have, in outline, an entertainment equaled by few, surpassed by none in our midst, in that which is beautiful, instructive and elevating. Even and exact justice awards honors alike to teachers and pupils. Maysville is justly proud of all.

MAYSVILLE WON.

They Broke Even at Knoxville—Alerts to Play Here To-morrow and Next Day.

[Special to BULLETIN.]

KNOXVILLE, TENN., June 9, 1896.

To-day's game resulted in a victory for Maysville. It was one of the best of the series, the score standing 3 to 2 against the Indians.

Leever was in the box and put up a great game.

Will arrive home Thursday. B. T. C.

The Maysvilles broke even in the series at Knoxville, winning three of the six. All were hotly contested.

The Alerts of Cincinnati will be here to-morrow for two games with the locals. Newton, Maysville's left-handed twirler, will likely be in the box to-morrow. It is worth the price of admission to see either him or Leever pitch a game. The boys deserve a big crowd. Let all turn out.

Reports of league games received daily at 6 p. m., at Weiland's, Market street.

Accidentally Shot.

A Narrow Escape.

A special from Manchester says: "Marshal Rodgers and son, Henry, had a narrow escape from being drowned Monday afternoon, while crossing the Ohio river. When in midstream Henry fell into the water, and his father sprang in to save him. He succeeded in reaching the son, but could not get back to the skiff. His cries for help attracted Ed. Evans and Oras Jones. When they reached the father he was going down for the last time, and Henry had already disappeared. The father was pulled into the skiff and it was found he had hold of his son's little finger."

The old officers of the Kentucky State Board of Health were re-elected at the annual meeting in Louisville. President Matthews read his annual address. "Osteopathy" was repudiated and it was resolved to recognize the diplomas of no college except those of the United States.

THERE was a free-for-all shooting scrape at Crockett's Mills, in Bath County, Tuesday afternoon. The parties engaged were James Mitchell and two sons on one side and Alex Cline on the other. Some fourteen shots were fired and all three of the Mitchells were slightly wounded. Cline was also wounded.

THE Kentucky Christian Educational Society of Lexington was established forty years ago for the purpose of educating young men for the ministry. Since its organization the society has educated over 250 young men, many of whom are now among the most prominent divines of the States. The society has assisted thirty young men this year, eleven of whom were among the graduating class of the Bible College, and both first and second honor men being beneficiaries.

A Serious Charge.

At Brooksville this week a warrant was issued for the arrest of Mrs. Kate Jett, charged with administering poison to Mrs. S. S. Jacobs, an invalid woman living near Germantown. Mrs. Jett is a daughter of Silas Orme, one of the most prominent citizens of Robertson County.

Mrs. Jett has been making her home with Mrs. Jacobs for the past two months, and no cause can be assigned as to why she should attempt such a thing.

The above is a special from Brooksville.

TRIALS IN POLICE COURT.

A Vexatious Question Settled by Judge Harbeson Yesterday.

In a case in the Police Court yesterday the defendant's attorney applied for a change of venue. Judge Wadsworth overruled the motion, and at the conclusion of the evidence defendant was fined $10 and costs.

Defendant's attorney then went before Judge Harbeson and sought to have his client discharged on a writ of habeas corpus.

After hearing the arguments, Judge Harbeson dismissed the case, holding that Judge Wadsworth was right in overruling the motion for a change of venue. He rules that cases for violations of city ordinances must be tried in the Police Court, and that if defendant is not willing to have the regular Judge sit on the case, the proper proceeding is not by a change of venue, but is to swear him off the bench, and let the members of the bar elect a special Judge.

MATTHEWS-POWER NUPTIALS.

The Event of the Season at Flemingsburg—Popular Couple Happily Wedded.

The wedding of Dr. Edwin Matthews, of this city, and Miss Frankie Morgan Power, of Flemingsburg, last evening at 8 o'clock was the event of the season at that place.

The beautiful home of the bride was elegantly decorated, pink and white being the prominent colors. Dancing finished the evening's pleasures.

The ceremony was very beautiful and impressive.

Mr. Stanley Watson and Mr. Hood led the bridal procession. Then came Mr. Carroll Power and Mr. R. L. Hoeftlich, bearing pink and white ribbons forming an aisle. Next Mr. Jos. Power and Dr. Crouch, the latter of Charleston, W. Va. Following these were the happy couple, the bride in a beautiful organdie exquisitely trimmed, and carrying Bride roses. The groom was very handsome in his full dress suit.

The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. Cleon Keyes, assisted by Elder Eubanks.

Among those present were Misses Madeline January, Ethelene Wall, Belle and Rosa Watson and Helen Barkley, of this city; Misses Yancey and Laytham, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Duke, Mrs. Finch and daughter and Hon. Walter Matthews and wife, of Mayslick.

The bride is a lovely young lady, daughter of Judge J. S. Power, of Fleming, while the groom is a successful dentist of this city, son of Hon. Walter Matthews, of Mayslick.

Four Generations Represented

At a meeting at Mr. and Mrs. James H. Hall's yesterday there were four generations in the company, the venerable Mr. James Jacobs at the head and the five youngest children of five families present. They all sang a hymn by old Dr. Watt's, "Broad is the Road That Leads to Death," to the tune of "Old Hundred," and the old man, Mr. Jacobs, "raised the tune."

MR. S. F. MATTINGLY, of this county, and Miss Bertie Pearis, of Lewis County, were married yesterday, Judge Hutchins officiating.

Improper food causes that tired feeling Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies, enriches, and vitalizes the blood and gives vigor and vitality.

WOMAN HANGED.

She Had Murdered Scores of Infants In- trusted to Her Care.

LONDON, June 11.—Mrs. Annie Dyer, the Reading baby farmer, who presumably had murdered scores of infants in- trusted to her care, was hanged in Newgate prison yesterday. The weather was rainy, but the crowds in the vicinity of the prison were as large as the available space would accommodate. When the black flag was hoisted, indicating that the Reading ogress had paid the penalty of her crimes, the crowd cheered loud and long.

Since she was sentenced to death Mrs. Dyer twice attempted to commit sui- cide. Latterly she was watched day and night and was deprived of every- thing except her most necessary cloth- ing, even her hairpins having been taken from her. The woman was com- pletely dazed when brought to the scaf- fold, and had to be supported by the wardresses who had her in charge.

Although Mrs. Dyer was clearly proved to have committed numerous murders of infants, she was tried on a selected case, that of a little girl, the child of a barmaid, whom she had adopt- ed for the sum of £10. The child was strangled with a piece of tape and its body sank in the Thames at Read- ing. The bodies of seven other chil- dren who had been similarly strangled, were found in the river at the time that the barmaid's infant was recover- ed.

MET WATERY GRAVES.

The Filibustering Tug Mascot and Her Entire Crew Are Lost.

BALTIMORE, June 11.—The families of the crew of the tug Mascot, which left here Nov. 25 with arms and ammu- nition for the Cuban patriots, have given up hope of ever seeing the men again.

She passed out from Cape Henry Nov. 29. Within a few days one of the most terrible gales that have occurred in re- cent years swept the ocean and the tug is supposed to have foundered. She was in command of Captain A. Mc- Creedy of New York. The crew in- cluded Mate Edward Emory, Chief En- gineer M. F. Kory, Assistant Engineer Louis V. Wheeler, Firemen W. H. Parker, A. B. Brel and James Ras- mussen, Seamen Charles Olsen and Martin O. Wright, all of Baltimore.

PREMATURE EXPLOSION.

Seven Men Buried Under the Debris—One of Them Dead.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 11.—One hun- dred and eighty cans of dynamite ex- ploded about a mile below Lilly yester- day afternoon, instantly killing Mike Scawnoski and fatally injuring Antonio Stible, Gregorius Sciskie, Gabriel Au- gonoski, Frank Smith, colored, Peter Jackson, colored, Samuel Walters.

The men were at work for Contractor McMinus on the Pennsylvania railroad, and were getting ready to make a blast, when a premature explosion followed, blowing up 180 cans of dynamite and burying the seven men beneath a mass of sand and rock. The steam shovel, which stood on the track, was hurled 20 feet away.

GLASGOW, Ky., June 11.—Albert C. Pile lost by fire at an early hour yester- day his bonded warehouse, containing 80 barrels of whisky and 15 of brandy. Loss $5,000, insurance $3,500.
